What's important to me...

My family, pets and friends are important to me.

I like to ensure a good work life balance to spend time with my family particularly my wee granddaughter she always makes me laugh.

I enjoy walking, reading, going to pilates, and love going to concerts, I enjoy cooking as well as eating out and the occasional glass of Chardonnay.

I enjoy meeting people from all walks of life.

I like to think I am making a difference to peoples lives.

Being supportive and providing good guidance and sharing my knowledge and experiences if it will help people.

It is important to me that people feel they can approach me .

If people need support I like to be there for them and I enjoy hearing and seeing peoples success stories.

I like to be organised and punctual for appointments/meetings.

What people like and admire about me...

I am open,honest, reliable and friendly.

I am supportive and will go the extra mile to help people.

I am passionate about my work.

I am patient and understanding.

I have got a good sense of humour when the occasion arises.

How best to support me...

Be open and honest with me, if I go off track.

Communicate with me, I appreciate positive and constructive feedback, which I will learn from.

I like to talk things through, if I have got concerns or challenges, I usually always come up with my own solutions, but like a safety net to share my thoughts and views to ensure that I am going in the right direction.

Being available when I need the occasional support.
