

Jeanette Johnston

What people like and admire about me...

I am honest and approachable and have a good sense of humour.

I have been told that I have lots of patience.

I am understanding and tend to always find solutions to any problem.

I have empathy for those who are less fortunate than myself.

What's important to me...

My family both here and abroad and friends are very important to me and spending quality time with them.

My faith and my beliefs.

Living a simple and comfortable life.

Routine and meeting targets are also very important

Treating individuals with respect and with an understanding that we are all different and have a right to be.

My many hobbies which I enjoy, when I can have some time for myself.

How best to support me...

Be frank in any situation.

Offer ongoing support with any queries.

Address any concerns that I may have.

Support me to provide a positive outcome for all candidates.